ADVICE PROCESS

DEFINING THE SCOPE OF ENGAGEMENT

As your financial planners, we should explain to you the process that we will follow, find out your needs and make sure we can meet them. We will confirm to you whether we are the right professionals to meet your objectives, as well as any costs and fees that will be incurred.

IDENTIFYING YOUR GOALS

We will work with you to identify your short and long term financial goals – this stage serves as a foundation for developing your plan.

ASSESSING YOUR FINANCIAL SITUATION

Your financial planner will take a good look at your position – your assets, liabilities, insurance coverage and investment or tax strategies.

PREPARING YOUR FINANCIAL PLAN (Statement of Advice)

Your financial planner will recommend suitable strategies, products and services, and will provide answers to any questions you may have.

IMPLEMENTING THE RECOMMENDATIONS

Once you're ready to go ahead, your financial plan will be put into action. Where appropriate, your financial planner may work with specialist professionals, such as an accountant or a solicitor.

REVIEWING THE PLAN

Your circumstances, lifestyle and financial goals are likely to change over time, so it's important that your financial plan is regularly reviewed, so that we can help make sure to keep you on track.

WHAT DOCUMENTS WE ISSUE YOU

Statement of Advice: This document communicates our advice, product recommendations (if any), reasoning and analysis and how they meet your goals and objectives, along with fees payable to us, as well as fees charged by the providers we recommend.

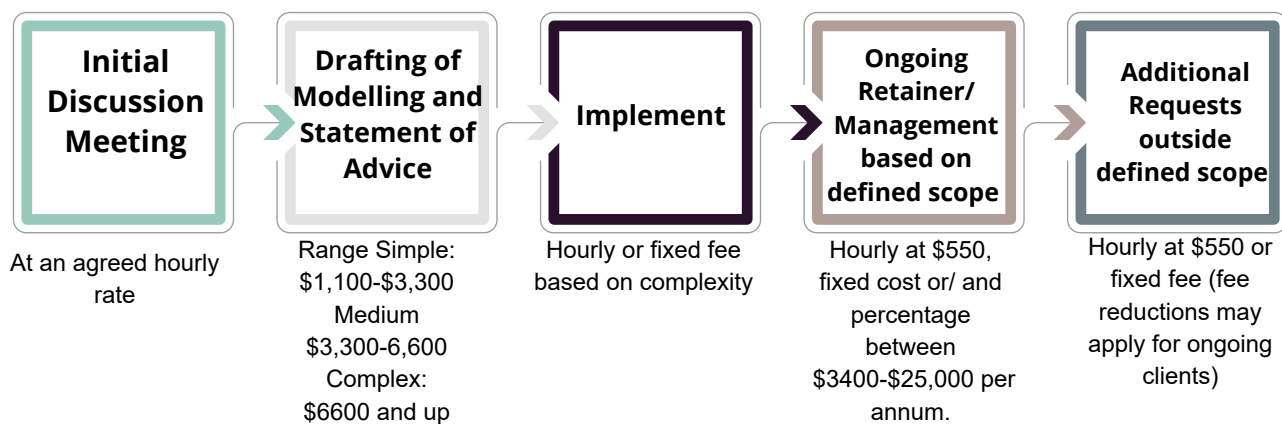

Record of Advice: This document is usually issued by us as soon as practical after a review of your situation. It communicates our advice, product recommendation (if any), investment changes and commentary on progress. If no changes are recommended, we may record this to be the case and write to you confirming this outcome. We usually undertake a review at least annually depending on your service level and needs.

We retain your records for up to 7 years. If you need to access certain information which you sent to us, you may write to us and indicate your request.

FEES THAT YOU PAY FOR THE FINANCIAL SERVICES WE PROVIDE

We are paid by you when you engage with us. Prior to working with us, you will be given a Scope and an Estimation for you to approve. Generally, we are paid either hourly, fixed fee or retainer or a combination based on your needs and the complexity and value of the advice. You will be issued with a Statement of Advice when required.

For the latest update on our fee structure and other additional information, please refer to our Professional Fees Schedule.

Initial Discussion Meeting:

To give both parties peace of mind, a discovery meeting is offered and is charged at a fee (for details on price structure, please refer to our Professional Fees Schedule). Should you choose to engage as a client, the fee is rebated against the cost of further work we quote you.

Drafting, Modelling & Statement of Advice

Fees are charged for our initial advice and the preparation of an SoA. Fees are based on the complexity of the advice provided (please see our Professional Fees Schedule for details).

You will be sent an invoice and payment is required within 14 days from the invoice date. Please note that my initial advice fees still apply regardless whether you choose to implement the advice or not.

Implementation fees

If you proceed with the advice given and additional work is required for implementing that advice, we may charge to cover the costs associated with implementing the recommendations in your SoA.

The fee is calculated on an hourly rate, depending on the seniority of the staff.

Execution-only service or ad hoc advice fees

Fees for execution-only services and ad hoc advice may be charged at an hourly rate (please see our Professional Fees Schedule for details), depending on the complexity of the work involved. An estimate of the time required will be provided and agreed upon prior to commencing the work.

HOW YOUR ADVISER IS REMUNERATED

Your adviser is paid a salary and bonus by their employer. Reasonable expenses may also be paid such as business related travel, education and professional memberships.

HOW OUR AUTHORISED REPRESENTATIVES ARE REMUNERATED

Our authorised representatives are paid when you agree to pay fees for services you agree to. We do not accept commissions from product providers with the exception of life insurance where you may nominate we do. However, in some occasions, we will receive commissions for products already in place. We may rebate those to you in full or offset against other fees at our discretion. We do not receive referral fees.

OTHER REMUNERATION INFORMATION

Able Financial Services may receive assistance from Platform Operators or Product Issuers for training sessions. It may also receive 'small one off' benefits and these will be recorded in a Register of Benefits which you may request to view.

We do not accept other remuneration for referrals we make or receive.

Able Financial Services charges its authorised representatives a fixed monthly fee and incidental charges (subject to change without notice) to cover the services and activities of the Licence. This fee is deducted from the fees you pay to us before they are passed onto the Corporate Authorised Representative.

HOW WE CARE FOR YOUR DATA

The privacy of your personal information is important to us.

1. Your representative will ask you many questions. Why is so much information required?

We collect your personal information to enable us to provide you with the products and services that are appropriate to your needs. Under the following Australian laws we may be authorised or required to collect your personal information:

- Corporations Act 2001,
- Australian Securities and Investment Commissions Act 2001,
- Anti Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act,
- Taxation Administration Act 1953,
- Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 and

- As those acts are amended and any associated regulations. From time to time, other acts may require, or authorise us to collect your personal information.

We are required to collect sufficient information to identify a person's needs, objectives and financial circumstances so that we can provide appropriate financial advice.

We will gather the information by asking you numerous questions about you and possibly your family. We will record this information. We endeavour to retain accurate, complete and up to date personal information about you so we will ask you to review the information from time to time.

If the information you provide to us is incomplete or inaccurate, this will impact our analysis of your requirements and may result in advice that is not appropriate to your needs and circumstances. If this does occur, you will need to make your own assessment concerning the appropriateness of our advice.

At times, we may collect personal information from someone other than yourself and you may not be aware that we collect or have collected this information.

2. Access and correction

You may (subject to permitted exceptions) access and update your information by contacting us. You may access the personal information we retain and request corrections. Nevertheless, we will always disclose and collect your personal information in accordance with Privacy Principles.

5. Identifiers

Although in certain circumstances we are required to collect government identifiers such as tax file numbers, Medicare numbers or pension card numbers, we do not use or disclose this information other than when required or authorised by law, or unless you have voluntarily consented to disclose this information to any third party. We may use trusted third party identification providers to verify your identity.

6. Dealing with us anonymously or using a pseudonym

The nature of the provision of financial services does not lend itself to treating customers with anonymity. However, in some instances, we may be able to provide information or a service anonymously or to you under a pseudonym, such as, for example, making enquiries about products from a potential client.

You can deal with us anonymously where it is lawful and practicable to do so.
