§ 01 · WHY ONGOING

Financial advice is rarely a single event.

Investment structures evolve. Superannuation balances grow. Retirement income decisions become permanent. Tax law and legislative frameworks change. Family circumstances shift, sometimes gently, sometimes overnight.

For many clients, financial complexity increases over time, not decreases. Continuity is the quiet work of keeping a plan alive.

Ongoing advice is not appropriate for every client. Where we believe a structured and continuing advisory relationship is in your best interests, we provide defined oversight through our Ongoing Financial Wellbeing service.

It is not a newsletter. It is not a retainer. It is a commitment to the work: a scheduled review, a monitored strategy, a phone that gets answered.

§ 02 · OUR PRACTICE AREAS

Specialist advice across core practice areas.

HFI brings the same depth of technical work to every client we take on, whether the question is structuring a TPD claim, drawing a sustainable retirement income, growing wealth with intent, or protecting a family member through a Special Disability Trust. Our practice is built around the areas where considered, ongoing advice makes a material difference.

§ 07 · READY TO TAKE THE NEXT STEP?

How to begin a considered relationship.

Our team is here to guide you with clarity, care and expert support. If you'd like to explore which engagement level best fits your needs, or you're ready to begin, we'd love to help.

01

Get in touch

Start with a no-obligation conversation with one of our dedicated team members. We'll provide our Financial Services Guide so you can understand our services and obligations.

02

Discovery

Meet with one of our advisers to discuss your situation, priorities, and goals. This is a paid consultation ($550–$660 for non-TPD clients, $275 for TPD claim clients), where you'll receive general advice on your most pressing concerns.

03

Proposal

We'll recommend a suitable level of engagement (Essential, Advanced, or Private) with a clear outline of scope and fees provided in writing.

04

Proceed & implement

If you choose to proceed, we'll provide an Ongoing Service & Fee Agreement outlining the agreed services. Where personal advice is required, appropriate documentation will be prepared. Once confirmed, we begin working on your strategy, prepare any required advice, and guide you through implementation and ongoing support.

A note on suitability. Ongoing advice is not appropriate for every client. Where we believe a structured and continuing advisory relationship is in your best interests, we will recommend it, and where it isn't, we'll say so clearly.

§ 08 · DISCLOSURES &amp; IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Important information, in plain language.

The information in this document is general in nature and must be read together with our Financial Services Guide, Professional Fees Schedule and Ongoing Service & Fee Agreement.

How and when are fees paid?

Fees can be paid directly or, where permitted, deducted from an eligible account (including superannuation) with your annual written consent. You can withdraw that consent and stop the arrangement at any time.

What if my circumstances or needs change mid-year?

Life changes and new ideas are welcome. We can extend scope with an hourly rate or a fixed-cost agreement for modelling or additional advice outside your original service scope. Advanced clients receive 10% off eligible hourly tasks; Private clients 15–20%.

What about add-ons for couples or trustees?

A couple / second person is +$1,100 p.a. A Trustee Assist Service is $770 p.a. Additional super or investment withdrawals beyond 2 per annum are $300 + GST per withdrawal.

Are priority turnaround times guaranteed?

Priority and expedited workflows indicate the order in which requests are handled. They are not guaranteed timeframes and availability may vary with adviser workload.

What happens with third-party fees?

External costs (legal, accounting, platform or transaction fees) are not included in your ongoing service and are passed on at cost.

What is the minimum term, and how do I cancel?

Ongoing services have a minimum annual commitment. You may terminate with written notice at any time. Fees already charged for services delivered are non-refundable.

Who is responsible for keeping advice current?

Our advice relies on the information you share with us. Please let us know promptly when your circumstances change, as it may affect the suitability of our recommendations.

How is my privacy protected?

Your information is handled confidentially in accordance with our Privacy Policy and Financial Services Guide, except where disclosure is authorised or required by law.

Health & Finance Integrated

A people-centred advice firm specialising in disability and medical retirement, retirement income, wealth management, and complex estate and trust strategy, with a particular commitment to clients, carers and families navigating chronic health conditions.
